

BROADSIDE 44 — ME TOO — 2018. THE WAYZGOOSE PRESS, KATOONBA, AN EDITION OF 10 SIGNED & NUMBERED COPIES

Wayzgoose Press has been producing graphic/typographic broadsides of political and social commentary for a quarter of a century, with emphasis on current events. We have always been spoiled for choice; the environment, global warming, globalisation, inequality... — but this year there was no competition. We didn't even have to write the text; a coiffured, orange-coloured escapee from a freak show had done it for us. The broadside employs the 'Me Too' movement to illustrate Trump's assault on America. The Statue of Liberty is not taking it lying down.

ME TOO; Broadside #44. Hand set and printed on Magnani Incisioni in an edition of 10 copies. Linocut by Mike Hudson. 70 cm x 50cm
